

7TH ANNUAL MARSHFIELD CULTURAL FAIR!

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2010 10 am - 4 pm

2000 West 5th Street, Marshfield, WI 54449

What is the Cultural Fair?

This unique annual community gathering held at the UW-Marshfield/Wood County Campus offers music, dance, international foods, arts & crafts, cultural/ethnic displays, educational activities and more. The Marshfield Cultural Fair Association seeks a wide range of participation from individuals, school groups, churches, civic and professional organizations, and businesses to exhibit at the Cultural Fair. The intent is to create a "street fair" atmosphere with colorful and stimulating activities and displays consistent with the international character of our 7th annual celebration!

Invitation to Participate—PLEASE READ

GUIDELINES: We invite you to participate in this wonderful opportunity to promote harmony and respect for diversity in the community. Any proposed activity/display cannot serve as an overt political, religious or propaganda platform and proselytizing or recruiting is prohibited. Religious groups and individuals can provide information about international, domestic, ethnic, social justice and charitable connections.

HELPFUL HINTS: Make your display interactive, with clear signage about the country or group you are representing. We encourage you to create a HANDS ON exhibit with games people can play, items they can make or something they can learn, like a greeting or song in another language.

SALES: Items offered for sale should fit the international and ethnic character of the fair. Individuals, businesses and for-profit organizations are required to submit 10% of gross revenues to help support the fair. For more information, see www.marshfieldculturalfair.com

Register early to reserve your spot. Required fee of $20 includes one table (3' x 6') and one chair. Extra tables are available for $5 each (you must provide extra chairs). Electricity is also available for $5 (you must provide your own electrical cords and duct tape).

Registration Deadline: Saturday, January 30, 2010
